ANSWER TO BUILDING MATERIALS CORPORATION OF AMERICA'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO PLAINTIFF HAROLD RHODES, ON BEHALF OF HIS MINOR CHILD AND NEXT FRIEND, REBECCA RHODES

Pursuant to Rule 33 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Marcia Rhodes, makes the following Answers to Building Materials Corporation of America's First Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff Harold Rhodes, on Behalf of His Minor Child and Next Friend, Rebecca Rhodes within forty-five (45) days after service.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes objects to the disclosure of any information protected by any recognized privilege against disclosure, including, but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege and the attorney work-product doctrine.

2. Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes objects to any interrogatory that purports to require anything beyond that which is required by Rule 33 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure.

3. Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes objects to any interrogatory that requires one or more conclusions of law.

4. Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes objects to any interrogatory that calls for confidential information.

DEFINITIONS

As used herein, the term “irrelevant” means that a request calls for documents which are not relevant to the subject matter of this action and which are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

As used herein, the term “burdensome” means that it would be unduly burdensome, oppressive, annoying, time consuming and expensive to compile and furnish the documents called for in view of the degree of their relevance and materiality, if any.

As used herein, the term “overly broad” means that a request is unreasonably general, vague and nonspecific.

As used herein, the term “compound” means that a request contains multiple, unrelated categories of documents that are improperly combined together.

As used herein, the term “confidential” means the documents requested are retained in confidence at the express or implied request of a third party or that it is the custom of the trade to retain such records in confidence.

As used herein, the term “privileged” means that the documents requested are subject to either the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine or any other recognized privilege against disclosure.

ANSWERS

Subject to the foregoing definitions and objections, and without waiving the right of Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes to object to the admissibility, publication or other use of any response or information derived therefrom, Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes responds as follows:

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Please identify each person involved in answering these interrogatories on your behalf (i) stating each interrogatory that each such person assisted in answering, and (ii) identifying all persons or entities you consulted in responding to these interrogatories, including information that each person or entity provided.

ANSWER

Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes, assisted by counsel.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2

Please identify each person who has knowledge of the facts and circumstances relevant to the subject matter of this case; and, for each such person identified, please state:

- (a) a summary of the knowledge possessed by the person;
- (b) whether you have taken any statement from such person; and
- (c) the date and subject matter of each statement identified in subparagraph (b) of this interrogatory.

ANSWER

Apart from herself and her parents, Rebecca Rhodes is unaware of who else has knowledge of facts relevant to this case.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3

Please identify each person you expect to call as a witness at trial, describe the substance of his or her testimony, and identify any documents concerning that testimony.

ANSWER

Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes objects to this Interrogatory as it seeks the production of attorney work product. Without waiving this objection, Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes states that there have been no decisions made as to which witnesses will testify at trial.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4

Please identify each person you expect to call as an expert witness at trial, and state for each:

- (a) the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify;
- (b) the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify;
- (c) his or her education and qualifications; and
- (d) a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

ANSWER

Plaintiffs have not yet made the determination of which experts will testify at trial, and they reserve their right to supplement this response.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5

Please state the basis for any and all damages you allege you suffered as a result of BMCA's conduct and, further, please state the following:

- (a) the total amount of the claimed damages (in dollars) which you contend BMCA has caused you to suffer;
- (b) the basis for the claim that BMCA has caused you to suffer the damages stated in your answer to subparagraph (a) of this interrogatory;
- (c) describe in detail each item of claimed damages and the manner in which such damages were calculated;
- (d) identify each and every person with knowledge of the facts contained in your answers to subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this interrogatory; and

- (e) identify all documents that concern your answers to subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this interrogatory.

ANSWER

(a) Harold Rhodes on behalf of Rebecca Rhodes has no way to estimate the dollar value of her loss of consortium claim, including the way that her relationship with her mother has suffered due to her mother's devastating injuries and her inability to engage in activities with her mother that she used to, which have also resulted in the change of her lifestyle and that of her family as a whole.

(b) As alleged in the Complaint, BMCA, through GAF, exercised sufficient control over Zalewski that he was acting as BMCA's agent while driving the tractor trailer and causing the accident that resulted in all of the damages referenced in subparagraph (a) of this response.

(c) Refer to subparagraph (a) to this Response.

(d) Rebecca, Marcia and Harold Rhodes.

(e) There are no such documents.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6

Please state all fact(s) you became aware of concerning the accident on January 9, 2002, for each fact, please state:

- (a) when you became aware of the fact;
- (b) the person(s) who became aware of the fact;
- (c) identify each and every person with knowledge of the facts contained in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this interrogatory; and
- (d) identify all documents that concern your answers to subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this interrogatory.

ANSWER

(a)-(c) Rebecca Rhodes first learned of the accident from Diane Julian, Guidance Counselor at Stacy Middle School in Milford, MA. She told Rebecca Rhodes that her mother was involved in an automobile accident, that her father was with her, and that she was to go home from school, where her aunt would meet her.

(d) There are no such documents.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7

Please state the basis for your contention, contained in Paragraphs 30 and 31 of the Complaint, that:

- (a) BMCA exercised control over the contractors; and
- (b) BMCA failed to use reasonable care in its exercise of control over the manner in which the tractor-trailer was operated.

ANSWER

Please refer to response to Interrogatory No. 5(b). By way of further answer, Zalewski drove exclusively for BMCA/GAF for years and was dispatched by BMCA/GAF to drive the tractor trailer to Millis on January 9, 2002. While he was driving the load to Millis on behalf of BMCA/GAF, he drove into my mother's stopped car and caused her devastating injuries. BMCA is responsible for the conduct of its driver, its agent, Carlo Zalewski, who failed to use reasonable care while operating the tractor trailer on behalf of BMCA/GAF.

SIGNED under the pains and penalties of perjury this 8 day of April, 2003.

Harold Rhodes, on behalf of his minor child and next friend, Rebecca Rhodes
